LOCAL NEWS. MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 8.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S SPEAKING. - Colonel Robert E. Withers, the Conservative candidate for Governor, John L. Marye Jr. esq., the Conservative candidate for the Attorney Generalship of the State, and J. Randolph Tucker esq. the former State's Attorney General, addressed the citizens of Alexandria and vicinity in Liberty Hall, on Saturday night last, from eight until twelve o'clock, in opposition to the adoption of the new proposed State Constitution; and but rarely before were speeches better adapted to the end in view, and but rarely before were speeches better received.

The addresses of Messrs. Withers and Mayro dissected the offspring of the late Convention. and exhibited in all their deformity the infamous provisions of its several sections, and discribed in effective language the disgusting character of those who framed it, while in the "desultory remarks" of Mr. Tucker the fruition of its acceptance was portrayed in all its horrid colors, and the audience aroused to an enthusiasm but seldom achieved by a public speaker. To quote the gentleman's own words those who preceded him had delivered the sermons, while to him had been left the duty of exhorting, and right well did he perform his assigned part, for his whole speech from his "what's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander, even if its a Michagander," to his inscription "chiseled on the tomb-stone of Stonewall Jackson by the man who voted for the new Constitution," was a rapid succession of opposite points, put with telling effect.

At the conclusion of Colonel Wither's address Ex-Mayor Latham presented him with a beautiful bouquet from one of the fair daughters of thie city, which the gallant Colonel accepted in appropriate terms, remarking, among other things, that he was emphatically a ladys' man, having ten daughters of his own.

Among other gentlemen from abroad occupying seats on the stand were the Hon. Montgomery Blair, of Maryland, L. Q. Washington esq., formerly editor of the Richmond Whig, and several of the members of the Baptist Association, now in session here.

The meeting was an entire success in all its particulars, and its effects must of necessity, he beneficial.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.—Official notice is given that the erection of a screw-pile Lighthouse, to take the place of the light-vessel now marking the shoal of Smith's Point at the mouth of the Potomac river, is about to be commenced. Masters of vessels and pilots are warned to keep clear of the work, the position of which will be indicated by a light-vessel moored close-to, and showing one light only, to distinguish it from the Smith's Point light-

The proposed screw-pile light-house will stand on the extreme edge of the shoal, in 12 feet water, mean tide, distant about 11 miles Northwest from the Smith's Point light-vessel. Vessels must keep to the Eastward of it, giving it a berth of about a quarter of a mile.

A screw pile Light-house has been erecied near "Bowler's Rock," in the Rappahannock river, to take the place of the light-vessel which has heretofore marked that station. The light will be exhibited for the first time on the evening of the 10th June, 1868.

The light stands on the shoal on the south side of the river, in seven feet water, mean tide, with a depth of five fathoms close-to. It is abreast of and about 150 yards distant from the obstruction called "Bowler's Rock," between which and the light-houss the main or ship channel flows. The iron-work of the foundation is painted red; the superstructure is painted white. The illuminating apparatus is a Fresnel lens of the fifth order, and can be seen whenever the light-house is open at the upper or lower bend in the river.

SUMMER SHOWER.—It rained tolerably hard here last night for about an hour just after services in the churches began, but the storm was of much greater severity in Washington, as is seen by the tollowing notice of it, taken from the Chronicle of that city:

One of the most violent hail-storms which has visited this section for several years occur red about eight o'clock last evening, accompanied by heavy rain and tarific thunder and lightning. For nearly half an hour the hailstones, many of which were as large as pigeons' eggs, fell continually, breaking window-glass throughout the entire city, and doubtless resulting in much damage to the crops for miles around. The strong gale prevailing at the time wrenched off awnings, signs, and large branches of the trees, and, in some sections more exposed to its force, large trees were uprooted. After the storm had subsided the pavements in many places were covered with leaves and branches. The sign over Teutonia Hall, on Pennsylvania avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets, was wrenched from its fastenings and blown into the middle of the avenue, being crushed by the force of the fall. The around. The strong gale prevailing at the time being crushed by the force of the fall. The awning in front of Moses' furniture store, on Seventh street, was torn off and carried across the street. Conservatories and photographic galleries were badly damaged, and serious losses were incurred. It is probable that the damage throughout the city will amount to several thousand dollars. Up to the time of writing no information had been received of any serious accident or loss of life, though several small buildings were unroofed, chimneys blown DROWNED .- The Washington Star of Saturday evening says: "This morning, between and 10 o'clock, as two young men, named Charles H. Ellis and James Stetson, from Alexandria, were out fishing opposite Four Mile Creek, the boat was unfortunately upset while Mr. Ellis was weighing anchor, and Mr. James Stetson was drowned, he having fallen overboard by the jar of the boat, and, as he was unable to swim, went to the bottom before he could be rescued.

WARM WEATHER .- Though a long time coming, the warm weather may be said to have fairly set in on Saturday last, and from present indications promises to hold its own during the rest of the Sumner.

Money Stolen .- The trunk of Mr. J. W. Jeffries, at his boarding house on the corner of Prince and Henry streets, was broken open some time between Saturday morning and last night, and robbed of $160 in $5 notes, $1 in gold, and two ten and two five cent silver pieces. No clue has as yet been discovered that will lead to the detection of the thief. A reward is offered in another column for the recovery of the money.

Marye, Alexander H. H. Stuart, Uriel Wright and J. Randolph Tucker are announced to deliver addresses there.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Special Dispatches to the Gazette. Washington Municipal Affairs.

WASHINGTON June 8-3. p. m. - This being the day for the organization of the new Boards of the City Councils at ten o'clock the members of the Boards assembled in their respective chambers.

Rumors had been rife of some difficulty attending the organization, and the police had taken precautions to prevent any disorder. Ropes were stretched around the entrances leading to the respective chambers. Among the crowds the exciting topics of discussion were the probabilities of the admission of the colored delegates, and of the members-elect from the Fifth Ward.

After scenes of indiscribable confusion, and the organization of two Boards of Aldermen, and two of the Common Council, S. J. Bowen, the Radical candidate for the Mayoralty, was sworn in before the Radical Boards, and, having obtained the services of a locksmith, forced open the doors of the Mayor's Office, which were kept locked by the late Mayor Wallach, and took possession of the rooms.
